St. James's, January 21.

THE following humble Addreſs of the Governor, Council, and Aſſembly of the Iſland of Jamaica, being tranſmitted by the ſaid Governor, William Henry Littelton, Eſq; to the Earl of Hallifax, has been preſented, by his Lordſhip, to His Majeſty, who was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, Council, and Aſſembly of your Majeſty's Iſland of Jamaica, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, with our humble and unanimous Congratulations upon the Peace, which, by the Divine Bleſſing on your Majeſty's Council and Conduct, hath been lately concluded. This great and much wiſhed-for Event, fills the Hearts of your Majeſty's good Subjects of this Iſland with inexpreſſibel Satisfaction and Joy; and we ardently embrace this happy Occaſion of offering to your Majeſty our moſt dutiful and grateful Acknowledgments for your Majeſty's unwearied Attention to the Welfare of your People, by putting an End to the Ravages of War, and procuring the Bleſſings of Peace, upon Terms, which open to us the faireſt Proſpect of Security and Happineſs, and, at the ſame Time, manifeſt your Majeſty's Magnanimity and humane Diſpoſition, by the Moderation ſhewn to the Enemies of your Crown, even when Victory attended your Majeſty's Arms in every Part of the Globe. From hence your Majeſty hath acquired greater Glory than the Luſtre of Triumphs can give; for whilſt your good Subjects in this, as in every other Inſtance, have experienced your Majeſty to be the Father of your People, the conſenting Voice of Nations muſt now acknowlcdge your Majeſty the Friend of Man.

Permit us alſo, Royal Sir, to expreſs the deep and grateful Senſe, we ſhall ever retain of your Majeſty's Paternal Goodneſs to your faithful Subjects of this Iſland, who, amidſt the various Scenes of a moſt extenſive War, have, by your Majeſty's moſt gracious Care, in appointing a ſtrong Squadron of your Majeſty's Ships of War on this Station, conſtantly found themſelves in a State of uninterrupted Security; without which Protection, this Iſland, ſituated in the Neighbourhood of powerful and vigilant Enemies, well acquainted with our Coaſts, and our internal Weakneſs muſt unavoidably have fallen a Sacrifice to their ambitious Deſigns.

Animated with the warmeſt and moſt lively Impreſſions of your Majeſty's Benignity, we ſhall conſtantly endeavour to manifeſt our willing Duty and firm Attachment to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government; and we humbly truſt, that the Divine Providence, which has raiſed your Majeſty to the higheſt Point of human Glory, will grant to you the ampleſt Enjoyment of the Bleſſings of that Peace, which your Majeſty hath given to a faithful, affectionate, and loyal People.

W. H. Lyttelton.

Charles Price, jun. Speaker.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants, Common Council, and Freeburgeſſes of the Borough of Colcheſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Charles Gray and Iſaac Martin Rebow, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants, Common-Council, and Freeburgeſſes, of your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Colcheſter in the County of Eſſex.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, reinſtated by your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in our antient Liberties and Franchiſes by the Grant of a new Charter, beg Leave to approach the Throne, with Hearts full of the warmeſt Gratitude for the invaluable Favour: As we cannot but reflect in common with all our Fellow-Subjects, on the tender Regard conſtantly ſhewn, by your Majeſty, to our Liberties and Welfare, we acknowledge this as a freſh and particular Obligation on us, upon every Occaſion, to manifeſt our Zeal in Support of your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family, and Government.

We alſo beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will diſcharge the Truſt repoſed in us as Magiſtrates, and good Subjects, in preſerving the Peace within our Borough, and faithfully and honeſtly uſing our beſt Endeavours to preſerve the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment both in Church and State.

We cannot at this Time omit congratulating your Majeſty and our gracious Queen your Royal Conſort, upon the Increaſe of your Family, which affords us a moſt pleaſing Proſpect of the long Continuance of the Imperial Crown of this Realm, in your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe.

It is with Abhorrence we look upon the indecent Aſperſions which of late have been induſtriouſly propagated through the Kingdom, to interrupt the Bleſſings of Peace after the Calamities of a War, ſo neceſſarily begun, ſo ſucceſsfully carried on, and ſo happily ended.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and glorious, your Subjects faithful and obedient; and that good Order and public Proſperity may be the Conſequence of the ſhining Example your Majeſty has given, in Support of Religion and Virtue, are the ſincere and ardent Wiſhes of us your Majeſty's ever faithful and dutiful Subjects.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed our Common Seal to be hereunto affixed, the Eleventh Day

Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three, and in the Fourth Year of your Majeſty's Reign

Hambourg, January 10. The great Quantities of Rain and Snow, that have fallen lately in theſe Countries, have rendered the Roads almoſt impracticable, and occaſioned the Inundation of ſeveral Rivers. His Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed, as a Mark of His Royal Acceptance of the good and laudable Services performed by Charles Coote, of Coote-Hill in the County of Cavan, Eſq; in the late tumultuous and illegal Inſurrections in the Northern Parts of Ireland, to nominate him to be one of the Knights Companions of the moſt Honorable Order of the Bath: And His Majeſty having been pleaſed to ſignify His Royal Pleaſure, that the Earl of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of His Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland, ſhould inveſt him with the Enſigns of the ſaid Order; and that the ſaid Inveſtiture ſhould be performed in ſuch Publick and diſtinguiſhed Manner, as might both ſhew the Reſpect due to the King's Order, and be a Teſtimony of His Majeſty's Senſe of the Merit of the Gentleman on whom that ſignal Mark of His Royal Favor was to be conferred; The Ceremony was performed this Day at His Majeſty's Caſtle in Dublin, in the following Manner:

About Noon a Proceſſion was made from his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's private Apartments in the Caſtle to the Great Ball Room, as follows:

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant.

In this Manner the Proceſſion was made to the upper End of the Great Ball Room, where his Excellency ſtood upon a Carpet, having an arm Chair behind him: On his Right Hand ſtood a Table, upon which was placed, on a Velvet Cuſhion, the Sword of State; and on another Cuſhion, upon the ſame Table, were placed the Ribbon and Golden Medal, being the Enſigns of the Order. His Excellency being thus prepared for the Function, and moſt of the Nobility, Ladies, and principal Perſons of Diſtinction in this Kingdom being preſent, a Herald was ordered to call in Mr. Coote, who waited in the Antichamber; which being done, he was introduced, and made his firſt profound Obeyſance to his Excellency at the Bottom of the Room, the Second in the Middle of the Room, and the Third when he approached his Excellency, who returned the ſeveral Bows, and received him ſtanding: Then Mr. Coote kneelling before his Excellency, the Aid de Camp in Waiting drew the Sword of State, and preſented it to his Excellency, who therewith knighted Mr. Coote according to the uſual Form: Which being done, his Excellency ordered his Principal Secretary to read a Letter wrote by the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, ſignifying His Majeſty's Pleaſure that he ſhould inveſt Mr. Coote with the Enſigns of the Order of the Bath; Sir Charles Coote then kneeling, his Excellency took the Ribbon and Medal which was preſented to him by Ulſter King of Arms; and inveſted the Knight therewith, placing the Ribbon ſo as to hang from his Right Shoulder to his Left Side. His Excellency then made a Sign to Sir Charles Coote to ariſe, and directed his Principal Secretary to deliver to him His Majeſty's Diſpenſation, permitting him immediately to wear the Enſigns of the Order.
